Foreign currency surcharge: which currency should I use for paying?

When paying with your credit card or prepaid card abroad or on international websites, you should always use the retailer's local currency rather than Swiss francs. In general, this will allow you to benefit from a better exchange rate with PostFinance.

Processing surcharge

PostFinance levies a fee of 1.2 percent on the purchase amount for international transactions in a foreign currency or in Swiss francs.

<sup>2</sup> Payback on the sales turnover achieved (excluding cash withdrawals, money transfers and debits for charges, interest and fees). The bonus is paid out each June and December.
